

Rhino's chocolate adventure!

This week Rhino class have been creating their own chocolate lollies. It was a really enjoyable process; we started off designing the lolly and the packaging. On the Friday we were real chocolatiers making both the lolly and the packet.

Here are some photos of the end products.

