I am in charge of the local provinces (Nomes) of Egypt. I can make local laws. My position is passed down through my family.

We are the only people who can read and write in Egypt. I help to keep records of important things for the pharaoh and other important people.

I am a skilled worker. I make things like pots, clothes, shoes, bags and jewellery.

I am the ruler of Egypt. I own all the land and have the power to make any laws I want.

I help to protect Egypt by fighting our enemies in battle. I am often rewarded for my bravery with land and treasure.

I have to make sure that the gods and goddesses are kept happy. I perform rituals and also help with funerals.

I was captured during a battle against Egypt and now I am forced to work for the pharaoh and other rich people.

I help the pharaoh to run the country. I am also a high court judge.

I farm the land of the pharaoh and other rich people. In return for the crops I grow I get shelter, food and clothes.
